

Dear Client:

Instructions for Cuba Programs, Business Travel and Individuals Traveling to Cuba

Attached please find the travel forms that every person traveling to Cuba must review, complete, sign and return to us in order to begin making all travel arrangements. Remember to send us your OFAC license and letter of authorization, if applicable, as well as a copy of your passport(s). Also, if you already have your Cuban visa on hand, kindly include a copy with your forms.

Please refer to our Flights section to find our most current flight schedules, but note that flights are subject to change. However, we should begin blocking seats for you or your group as early as we can in order to have as many options as possible.

If you have any questions or wish to be guided through the process, please feel free to contact us at your convenience at any of our Miami or New Jersey offices below.

We are here to help you!

Sincerely,
